(2) The State Government shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, constitute one or more tribunals to be called university and Colleges tribunals, for adjudication of disputes or difference between the teachers and employees and the university, management of any affiliated college or recognised institution (Other than that managed and maintained by the State Government, Central Government or local authority) connected with, or arising out of, the matters specified in sub-section (1) of section 59.

(3) A Tribunal shall consist of one person only, to be appointed by the State Government,

(4) A person shall not be qualified for appointment as a Presiding Officer of a Tribunal, unless, -

(a) he is or has been a Judge of High Court; or

(b) he is qualified to be appointed as a Judge of High Court :

Provided that a person to be appointed under clause (b) shall be from amongst the panel of three persons recommended by the Chief Justice of High Court of Judicature at Bombay.

(5) The appointment of a person as Presiding Officer of a Tribunal shall be on a full time basis, and for such period or periods, but not exceeding three years in the aggregate, as the State Government may, from time to time, in each case decide;

(6) The remuneration and other conditions of service of the Presiding Officer shall be as determined by the State Government.

(7) The university shall make available to a Tribunal such ministerial staff as may be necessary for the discharge of its functions under this Act.

(8) All expenditure on account of the remuneration, pension, provident fund contribution, leave allowance and other allowances and facilities which may be admissible to the Presiding Officer and the staff placed at his disposal, shall be met from the university fund.

(9) If any vacancy, other than a temporary vacancy, occurs in the office of the Presiding Officer of a Tribunal, the State Government shall, as soon as may be possible but in any case within three months, appoint another qualified person to fill the vacancy. Any proceedings pending before the former Presiding Officer may be continued and disposed of by his successor from the stage at which they were when the vacancy occurred.

Right of appeal

59. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law or contract for the time being in force, any employee (whether a teacher or other employee) in any university, college or recognised institution (other than that managed and maintained by the State Government, Central Government or a local authority), who is dismissed or removed or whose services are otherwise terminated or who is reduced in rank by the university or management and who is aggrieved, shall have a right of appeal and any appeal against any such order shall lie to the Tribunal;

Provided that, no such appeal shall lie to the Tribunal in any case where the matter has already been decided by a court or Tribunal in any case where the matter has already been decided by a court or Tribunal of competent jurisdiction or is pending before such court or Tribunal on the date of commencement of this Act or where the order of dismissal, removal, otherwise termination of service or reduction in rank was passed by the management at any time before the date on which this Act comes into force and in which case the period for filing and appeal has expired.

(2) Such appeal shall be made by the employee to the Tribunal, within thirty days from the date of receipt by him of the order of dismissal, removal, otherwise termination of services, or reduction in rank, as the case may be :

Provided that, where such order was made before the date of commencement of this Act, such appeal may be made if the period of thirty days from the date of receipt of such order has not expired.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), the Tribunal may entertain an appeal made to it after the expiry of the said period of thirty days, if it is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within that period.

(4) Every appeal shall be accompanied by a fee of four hundred rupees which shall not be refundable and shall be credited to the university fund :

Provided that it shall be lawful for the State Government to revise, by notification in the Official Gazette, such fees as it may deem fit from time to time.

General powers and procedure of Tribunal.

60. (1) For the purposes of admission, hearing and disposal of appeals, the Tribunal shall have the same powers as are vested in an appellate court under the Code of civil Procedure, 1908, and shall also have the power to stay the operation of any order against which an appeal is made, on such conditions as it may think fit to impose and such other powers as are conferred on it by or under this Act.

(2) The Presiding Officer of the Tribunal shall decide the procedure to be followed by the Tribunal for the disposal of its business including the place or places at which and the hours during which it shall hold its sittings.

(3) Every appeal shall be decided as expeditiously as possible. In every case, endeavor shall be made by the Tribunal to decide an appeal within three months from the date on which it is received by the Tribunal. If the Tribunal is unable to dispose of any appeal within this period, it shall put on its record the reasons therefor.

Powers of Tribunal to give appropriate reliefs and directions.

61. (1) On receipt of an appeal, where the Tribunal after giving reasonable opportunity to both parties of being heard, is satisfied that the appeal does not pertain to any of the matters specified in sub-section (1) of section 59 or is not maintainable by it, or there is no sufficient ground for interfering with the order of the university or management, it may dismiss the appeal.

(2) Where the Tribunal, after giving reasonable opportunity to both the parties of being heard, decides in any appeal that the order of dismissal, removal, otherwise termination of service or, reduction in rank was in contravention of any law, contract or conditions of service for the time being in force or was otherwise illegal or improper, the Tribunal may set aside the order of the university or the management, as the case may be, partially or wholly, and direct the university or, as the case may be, the management --

(a) to reinstate the employee on the same post or on a lower post as it may specify;

(b) to restore the employee to the rank which he held before reduction or to any lower rank as it may specify;

(c) to give arrears of emoluments to the employee for such period as it may specify;

(d) to award such lesser punishment as it may specify in lieu of dismissal, removal, otherwise termination of service or reduction in rank, as the case may be;

(e) where it is decided not to reinstate the employee or in any other appropriate case, to give such sum to the employees, not exceeding his emoluments for six months, by way of compensation, regard being had to loss of employment and possibility of getting or not getting suitable employment thereafter, as it may specify; or

(f) to give such other relief to the employee and to observe such other conditions as it may specify, having regard to the circumstances of the case.

(3) It shall be lawful for the Tribunal to recommend to the State Government that any dues directed by it to be paid to the employee may be deducted from the grant payable to the university or, as the case may be, the management and be paid to the employee direct.

(4) Any direction issued by the Tribunal under sub-section (2) shall be communicated to both parties in writing and shall be complied with by the university or, as the case may be, management; within the period specified in the direction, which shall not be less than two months from the date of its receipt by the university or, as the case may be, management.

Decision of Tribunal to be final and binding.

62. Notwithstanding anything contained in any law or contract for the time being in force, the decision of the Tribunal on an appeal entertained and disposed of by it shall be final and binding on the employees and the university or, as the case may be, management; and no suit, appeal or other legal proceeding shall lie in any court or before any other Tribunal or authority, in respect of the matter decided by the Tribunal.

Penalty to management for failure to comply with Tribunal's directions.

63. (1) If the university or, as the case may be, management fails, without any reasonable cause, to comply with any direction issued by the Tribunal under section 61 within the period specified in the direction, or within such further period as may be allowed by the Tribunal, the university or, as the case may be, management shall on conviction, be punished,--

(a) for the first offence, with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees;

Provided that, in the absence of special and adequate reasons to the contrary to be mentioned in the judgement of the Tribunal, the fine shall not be less than one hundred rupees; and

(b) for the second and subsequent offences, with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees ;

Provided that, in the absence of special and adequate reasons to the contrary to be mentioned in the judgement of the Tribunal, the fine shall not be less than five hundred rupees:

Provided further that, when the direction issued by the Tribunal is not complied with within the period stipulated in the direction or within such further period as allowed by the Tribunal, and when the contravention is a continuing one, the convicted person shall be punished with a further fine of rupees one hundred per day during which such contravention continues after conviction.

(2) (a) Where the university or, as the case may be, management committing an offence under this section is a society, every person who at the time the offence was committed, was in charge of and was responsible to the society, for the conduct of the affairs of the society, as well as the society, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly;

Provided that, nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any person liable to the punishment, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he had exercised all the diligence to prevent commission of the offence;

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (a), where the offence has been committed by a society and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or it attributable to any neglect on the part of the Management Council of the university or any president, chairman, secretary, member, principal or manager or other officer or servant of the society such Management Council, president, chairman, secretary, member, principal or management or other officer or servant concerned shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation. – For the purposes of this section, “society” means a society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 or a public trust registered under the Bombay Public Trusts Act, 1950, or any other body corporate, and includes an association or body of persons, by whatever name called, under whose management one or more colleges or institutions are conducted and admitted to the privileges of the university.

Legal practitioners excluded from appearance.

64. Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, a legal practitioner shall not be entitled to appear on behalf of any party in any proceedings before the Tribunal.

CHAPTER VIII

ADMISSIONS, EXAMINATIONS AND OTHER MATTERS RELATING TO STUDENTS

Admissions.

65. In accordance with the reservation policy of the State Government for the weaker sections of society, admissions to all courses in the university departments and affiliated colleges shall be made on the basis of competitive merit in accordance with the rules, if any, made by the State Government and published in the Official Gazette, or by the university and published in the university gazette by the University;

Provided that, where model rules have been framed by the State Government in the interest of students throughout the State, the university shall adopt the same and such rules shall be published in the university gazette or the Official Gazette as the case may be, at least six months before the start of any academic session which shall begin not later than first August every year :

Provided further that, having regard to the maintenance of discipline, the authority concerned shall have the power to refuse admission to a student.

Admission Tribunal.

66. The Tribunal or Tribunals constituted under sub-section (1) of section 58 for every university shall also be the Tribunal or Tribunals for any such university for adjudication of all the disputes relating to admissions to affiliated colleges or recognised institutions of such university. Such Tribunals shall adjudicate the admission disputes as provided hereinafter.

Application of provisions.

67. The provisions of sub-section (3) to (9) of section 58, sub-section (1) and (2) of section 60, and section 62 and 63 of this Act shall mutatis mutandis apply for adjudication of all disputes relating to admission.

Right to seek redressal

68. (1) Any student seeking admission to a course run by the university or its affiliated or conducted or recognised college or institution having any grievance relating to admission or to the rules of admission framed by the university or the State Government as the case may be, shall have the right to file an appeal to the Tribunal for appropriate redressal.

(2) Such appeal shall be made by the prospective student to the Tribunal within 10 days from the date of finalisation of admission or from the date of decision on his application for admission, whichever is earlier;

Provided that, the Tribunal may entertain an appeal made to it after the expiry of the period specified in the sub-section (2) if it is satisfied that the applicant had sufficient cause for not filing the appeal within the aforesaid period.

(3) Every appeal shall be accompanied by a fee of Rs. 300 which shall not be refundable and shall be credited to the university fund.

Powers of the Tribunal.

69. (1) When the appeal is against the validity of the rules of admission as framed by the University or the State Government as the case may be, the Tribunal shall be competent to stay the operation of these rules for a period of 15 days and shall proceed to dispose of the matter finally as far as possible within the said period.

(2) In the case of an appeal by an individual prospective student, the Tribunal shall be competent to direct the university or the management of the affiliated or conducted or recognised colleges and institution concerned, to reserve a seat for the appellant temporarily pending final adjudication of the appellant's claims.

Powers of Tribunal to give proper reliefs and directions

70. (1) On receipt of an appeal where the Tribunal, after giving reasonable opportunity to both parties of being heard, decides that the order of denial of appropriate admission to the appellant was in contravention of rules or was otherwise illegal or improper, the Tribunal may, set aside the decision of the university or management or any other competent authority, as the case may be, partially or fully, and direct the university or management or competent authority, as the case may be, to admit the appellant in the university or college or the institution in which the appellant has sought admission.

(2) In case of an appeal challenging the validity of the rules, the Tribunal may, either annul or rescind the rules or may direct the university or the State Government, as the case may be, to amend or modify the rules in such manner as may be directed by the Tribunal.

(3) Any direction issued by the Tribunal shall be communicated to both the parties in writing and shall be complied with by the university or the management or the competent authority as the case may be, within the period specified in this direction.

Examinations.

71. At the beginning of each academic term and in any case not later than 30th October of every calendar year, the university shall prepare and publish a schedule of examinations for each and every course conducted by itself or by any affiliated college or institution within its jurisdiction and shall strictly adhere to the schedule.

Explanation. –“Schedule of Examination” means a table giving details about the time day and date of the commencement of each paper which is a part of a scheme of examinations and shall also include the details about the practical examinations;

Provided however that, in case the university is unable to follow this schedule due to reasons and circumstances beyond its control it shall, as soon as practicable, submit a report to the Chancellor and to the State Government incorporating the detailed reasons for making a departure from the published schedule.

Declaration of results

72. the university shall strive to declare the results of every examination conducted by it within 30 days from the last date of the examination for that particular course and shall in any case declare the results latest within 45 days thereof ;

Provided however that, if for any reasons whatsoever the university is unable to finally declare the results of any examination within the aforesaid period of 45 days, it shall submit a report incorporating the detailed reasons for such delay to the Chancellor and to the State Government.

Examinations not invalid, for non-compliance with Schedule.

73. No examination or the results of an examination shall be held invalid only for the reasons that the university has not followed the schedule as stipulated in section 71 and 72 as the case may be.

Sports and Extra curricular activities.

74. The university shall frame appropriate Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations to ensure that the students selected to represent their classes, colleges or the university as the case may be, for sports, culture and all other activities are selected entirely on the basis of merit, through open merit competition alone and on no other basis.

Authorities and officers responsible for damages.

106. (1) It shall be the duty of every authority or body and officer of the university to ensure that the interests of the university are duly safeguarded.

(2) If it is found that a damage or loss has been caused to the university by any action on the part of any authority or body or officer of the university not in conformity with the provisions of this Act, Statutes, Ordinances or Regulations, except when done in good faith, or any failure so as to act in conformity thereof, by willful neglect or default on its or his part such damage or loss shall be liable to be recovered from the authority or body or the concerned members thereof, jointly or severally, or from the officer concerned, as the case may be, in accordance with the procedure prescribed by the Statutes.

Membership of State Legislative and of Parliament.

107. (1) A teacher of a private college shall not be disqualified for continuing as such teacher merely on the ground that he has been elected or nominated as a member of the Legislative Assembly or of the Legislative Council of the State or of Parliament.

(2) A teacher elected or nominated as a member of the Legislative Assembly or of the Legislative Council of the State, or of Parliament shall be entitled to treat the period of his membership of the Legislative Assembly or of the Legislative Council or of Parliament as on leave without salary and allowances.

(3) A teacher referred to in sub-section (2) shall also be entitled to count the period of his membership of the Legislative Assembly or of the Legislative Council or of Parliament for the purposes of pension, seniority and increments.

Questions regarding interpretation and disputes regarding constitution of the university authority or body, etc.

108. If any question arises regarding the interpretation of any provision of this Act, or of any Statutes, Ordinance, Regulation or Rule, or whether a person has been duly elected or appointed or nominated or co-opted as or is entitled to be a member of any authority or body of the university, the matter may, be referred, on petition by any person or body directly affected, or suo motu by the Vice-Chancellor to the Chancellor, who shall after taking such advice as he thinks necessary, decide the question, and his decision shall be final :

Provided that, such reference shall be made by the Vice-Chancellor to the Chancellor upon a requisition signed by not less than twenty-five members of the Senate.

Protection of acts and orders.

109. All acts and orders done or passed in goodfaith by the University, or any of its officers, authorities or bodies, shall subject to the other provisions of this Act, final; and accordingly, no suit or other legal proceedings shall be instituted against, or maintained, or damages claimed from the University or its officers, authorities or bodies for anything done or passed, or purporting to have been done or passed in goodfaith and in pursuance of the provisions of this Act and the Statutes, Ordinances, Regulations and Rules.

Delegation of powers.

110. Subject to the provisions of this Act and the Statutes, any officer or authority of the university may, by order, delegate his or its powers, except the power to make Statutes, Ordinances, Regulations and Rules to any other officer or authority under his or its control, and subject to the condition that the ultimate responsibility for the exercise of the powers so delegated shall continue to vest in the officer or authority delegating them.

Acts and proceedings not invalid merely on ground of defect in constitution, vacancies, irregularity in procedure, etc.

111. No act or proceeding of the Senate or the Management Council or Academic Council or any other authority or any body or committee of the university including a committee appointed by the Chancellor for the appointment of a Vice-Chancellor shall be deemed to be invalid at any time merely on the ground that ---

(a) any of the members of any such authority, body or committee are not elected, appointed, nominated or co-opted or for any other reason are not available to take office at the time of the constitution or to attend any meeting thereof or any person is a member in more than one capacity or there is any other defect in the constitution thereof or there are one or more vacancies in the offices of members thereof;

(b) there is any irregularity in the procedure of any such authority, body or committee not affecting the merits of the matter under consideration, and the validity of such act or proceeding shall not be questioned in any court or before any authority or officer merely on any such ground.

CHAPTER XV

ESTABLISHMENT OF NEW UNIVERSITIES.

Issue of order or orders providing for matters when new university is constituted.

112. When any new university is constituted by a notification in the Official Gazette under sub-section (2) of section 3, the State Government may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, by one or more orders published in the Official Gazette, provide for all or any of the following matters, namely :-

- (a) the appointment of the first Vice-Chancellor and other officers of the university and the term for which they shall be appointed;
- (b) constitution of the first Management Council and Academic Council in such manner as it thinks fit and the term for which it shall function;
- (c) continuance or application of such Statutes, Ordinances, Regulations and Rules with such modifications as it may specify;
- (d) the exercise of option by the registered graduates of any of the then existing universities to continue to remain registered graduates of the same university or to get registered with the new university ;
- (e) the continuance or discontinuance of the membership of the Senate, the Management Council, the Academic Council and other authorities, bodies and committees of the existing universities constituted under the Act;
- (f) the filling in the vacancies caused by discontinuance of the members of authorities or bodies or committees of the existing university ;
- (g) the continuance of the affiliation of the colleges or the recognition of the institutions by the new university to which the area is added and discontinuance of the same by the existing university from which the area is carved out;
- (h) the transfer of any of the employees of the existing university to the new university and the terms and conditions applicable to such employees or termination of the service of the employees of the existing university by giving such terminal benefits as the State Government deems fit;

Provided that, the terms and conditions of service of any employees so transferred shall not be varied to his disadvantage;

(i) the transfer of the assets, that is to say, property, movable or immovable, right, interest of whatsoever kind acquired, and the liabilities and obligations incurred, before the issue of any such order; and

(j) such other supplemental, incidental and consequential provisions as the State Government may deem necessary.

CHAPTER XVI

TRANSITORY PROVISION.

Continuance of existing officers and employees of university

113. Save as otherwise provided by or under this Act, every person holding office either as an officer or the employee (whether teaching or other employee) of an existing university on the date immediately before the commencement of this Act shall continue to hold office on the same terms and conditions as were applicable to him immediately before such date, and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as are conferred on them by or under this Act.

Constitution of authorities.

114. (1) Every authority of an existing university shall, as soon as, practicable, but within a period of six months from the date of commencement of this Act, be reconstituted in accordance with the provisions of this Act. Every such authority shall be deemed to be reconstituted with effect from such date as the Vice-Chancellor may, from time to time, specify by notification.

(2) Every person holding office as a member of any such authority immediately before the commencement of this Act shall, on the date of such commencement continue to hold the said office and the authority with such members shall exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred on it by or under this Act, until the date on which the authority is deemed to be reconstituted or the period of six months referred to in sub-section (1) expires, whichever is earlier.

(3) On the date on which any authority is deemed to be reconstituted or on which the period of six months expires, whichever is earlier, every member of an authority of an existing university who is continued in office under this section shall be deemed to have vacated his office.

Repeal and savings.

115. (1) On and from the date of commencement of this Act,--

| (g) the Amravati University Act, 1983 ; and | Mah.XXXVII of 1983 |
| (h) the North Maharashtra Universities Act, 1989, shall stand repealed. | Mah.XXIX of 1989 |

(2) Notwithstanding the repeal of the said Acts, --

(i) any person holding office immediately before the commencement of this Act as Vice-Chancellor of an existing university shall, on such commencement, be the Vice-Chancellor of the corresponding university and shall continue to hold the said office till his term of office as Vice-Chancellor of the existing university would have expired had he continued to be as such unless he ceases to be the Vice-Chancellor by reason of death, resignation or otherwise before the expiry of his term of office as aforesaid and shall exercise all the powers and perform all the duties conferred and imposed on the Vice-Chancellor of the corresponding university by or under this Act;

(ii) all colleges which stood affiliated to any existing university immediately before the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to be affiliated to the corresponding university under this Act till their affiliations is withdrawn by the corresponding university under this Act;

(iii) all other educational institutions which were entitled to any privileges of any existing university shall be entitled to similar privileges of the corresponding university ;

(iv) all property, movable or immovable, and all rights, interest of whatsoever kind, powers and privileges of any existing university shall stand transferred to and shall, without further assurance, vest in, the corresponding university and be applied to the objects and purposes for which the corresponding university is constituted ;

(v) all benefactions accepted or received by any existing university and held by it immediately before the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to have been accepted or received or held by the corresponding university under this Act, and all the conditions on which such benefactions were accepted or received or held shall be deemed to be valid under this Act, notwithstanding that such conditions may be inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Act ;

(vi) all debts, liabilities and obligations incurred before the commencement of this Act, and lawfully subsisting against any existing university, shall be discharged and satisfied by the corresponding university ;

(vii) any will, deed or other document made before the commencement of this Act, which contains any bequest, gift, term or trust in favour of an existing university shall, on and from the commencement of this Act, be construed as if the corresponding university is named therein instead of the existing university ;

(viii) all references in any enactment or other instruments issued under any enactment, to any existing university shall be construed as references to the corresponding university ;

(ix) the appointment of examiners validly made under the said Acts and subsisting immediately before the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to have been made under and for the purposes of this Act for the corresponding university , and such examiners shall continue to hold office and to act until fresh appointments are made under this Act ;

(x) the teachers, who were recognised teachers of the university under the said Acts in respect of any of the existing university immediately before the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to be recognised teachers of the corresponding university under and for the purposes of this Act and shall continue to be such recognised teachers until fresh recognitions are granted under this Act ;

(xi) the registered graduates, whose names were entered in the register of graduates maintained by the existing university immediately before the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to be registered graduates of the corresponding university under and for the purposes of this Act and the register so maintained and the registered graduates whose names are so entered therein, shall continue to be the register maintained by the corresponding university, and the registered graduates to be the registered graduates ;

(xii) all Statutes and Ordinances made under the said Acts in respect of any existing university shall, in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, continue in force and be deemed to have been made under this Act in respect of the corresponding university by the Senate or the Management Council, as the case may be of that university, until they are superseded or modified by the Statutes made under this Act ;

(xiii) all Regulations and Rules made by the Management Council, the Academic Council or the Faculties or other authorities of any existing universities shall, in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, continue in force and be deemed to have been made under this Act by the Management Council, the Academic Council, the Faculties or other authority, as the case may be, of the corresponding university, until they are superseded or modified by the Regulations or rules made under this Act ;

(xiv) a standard code, if any, prescribed under the said Acts shall be deemed to have been prescribed under this Act and shall, save as otherwise provided by or under this Act, continue to remain in force, until it is superseded in accordance with the provisions of this Act ;

(xv) all notices and orders made or issued by any authority under any of the said Acts shall, in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, continue in force and be deemed to have been made or issued by corresponding authority until they are superseded or modified under this Act ;

(xvi) the College Tribunal constituted under any of the existing University Acts and existing on the date of commencement of this Act shall continue to function as such till the constitution by the State Government for such University, University and College Tribunal under this Act, and on the date of constitution of the University and College Tribunal for such University, all the disputes or matters or appeals pending before such College Tribunal shall stand transferred to such University and College Tribunal and shall be dealt with and disposed of by such University and College Tribunal ;

Provided that, no Statutes, Ordinances, Regulations, rules, notices or orders made or issued under any of the Acts repealed by this section and in force immediately before the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to be inconsistent with the provisions of this Act by reason only that the power to make or issue such Statute, Ordinance, Regulations, Rule, Notice or Order under this Act vests in a different authority or body or officer, or that the subject matter thereof is permissible only under a different form of subordinate legislation or instrument to be made, under this Act.

Removal of difficulties.

116. If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the State Government may, as occasion requires, but not later than two years from the date of commencement of this Act, by order, do anything, not inconsistent with the objects and purposes of this Act, which appears to it to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing the difficulty.
